

English for Tertiary Entrance (English for Academic Purposes)

CRICOS Code: 056603K

Information 2009

Course Description

The English for Tertiary Entrance (English for Academic Purposes) program provides students with a pathway of study that prepares students with the skills and practice necessary to successfully cope with the requirements of a tertiary education course on a language, organisational and personal level. Areas such as study skills, critical thinking, self-assessment and contingency management will be dealt with in the course of study. Primarily, the course will prepare students for tertiary education by Australian standards, with a view to raising the student's awareness of academic expectations and a focus on original interpretation of literature and critical analysis. Debate, discussion, self-reflection and assessment through tutorials will be a key part of the course.

After completion:

Certificate of English for Tertiary Entrance AND Certificate of Attainment of each module
