

Uniworld Colleges

High School Teacher Profile

Joanne Prowse

Joanne Prowse is currently teaching Business Studies to Years 11 and 12 and Geography to Year 10 students at Uniworld High School. She has been teaching both local and international students for over 15 years. As well, she has had previous teaching experience in three Australian states at private and public High Schools. Joanne has also had many years teaching Diploma courses at various tertiary institutions in both Victoria and New South Wales. In addition to teaching, she also tutors students who are currently studying at University.

Besides her degree in Education and a Diploma of Secondary Education, Joanne has Certificates in Vocational Education and Commercial Cookery. Apart from teaching, she has worked in Accountancy for the Presbyterian Church and ran a successful restaurant for many years in her hometown of Brisbane. Outside her work at Uniworld, Joanne works on a voluntary basis for the International Red Cross.

Joanne has been teaching at Uniworld for the past four years and is committed to ensuring our students have enjoyable and successful learning experiences at Uniworld High School.